

HUMAN RELATIONS COMMISSION OF ORANGE COUNTY'S GOOD WILL PROGRAM

Does your small company, large business, school, individual philanthropy, faith organization, community group or government enterprise deserve special recognition from the County of Orange?

The Human Relations Commission of Orange County has developed an exciting new program to spotlight the good works of numerous OC enterprises - from one-person operation to large corporations. We are interested in publicly honoring different groups which have reflected significant progress in improving human relationships and effective communication in the workplace environment. This includes minimizing or eliminating bias and discrimination around disability, gender, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, age, and financial position. We are particularly interested in acknowledging special programs which promote the health, welfare and human rights of ALL Orange County residents.

Criteria

- 1. Evidence of small company, large business, school, individual philanthropy, faith organization, community group or government enterprise that has worked collaboratively and effectively to achieve goals or performance criteria.
- 2. Evidence that a major obstacle of bias or prejudice was overcome (disability, gender, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, age, and financial position.)
- 3. Evidence of resolved, major conflicts among persons or groups (personality differences, styles of leadership, etc.)
- 4. Elimination of hate crimes and incidents in the work place - through life coaching, counseling sessions, or mediation. Individuals are able to reveal increased understanding and compassion for one another.
- 5. Observed role models of cooperative, respectful and effective communication and behavior ALREADY in effect.
- 6. Unusual acts of courage, heroism, compassion for others, and good deeds.

Please explain in detail why your nomination should be considered for this prestigious recognition. Kindly submit a maximum one-page outline.
